The new media center „Le Quartier Central“

The property incorporates a generous foyer with café-bar, the latest communication and conference rooms, a planted inner courtyard with adjacent canteen and childcare facilities. In addition, there is a 600 qm sky garden on the roof of the 30 m-high building.

The principal tenant of the La Tête building is the Handelsblatt publishing group. In addition to other office areas, space is being provided for the business journalists of the Georg von Holtzbrinck School.

One really eye-catching feature on the facade is an 80 qm information screen that broadcasts current business news from the Handelsblatt and Wirtschaftswoche journals.

Impressions

Image notes

1

La Tête, Düsseldorf

The building was realised with a particularly expressive façade.

2

La Tête, Düsseldorf

Closed and transparent sections, reminiscent of a staggered barcode, alternate and create a creative tension.

3

La Tête, Düsseldorf

On the sixth floor there is a terrace on the east, south and west sides.
